

Cottages on Beautiful Sanibel Island

Planning a vacation on Sanibel Island, but not sure where to stay? Hotels are convenient, but not very intimate. Privately owned condos can be a good choice, but may come with many restrictions. For many couples and families, cottages on Sanibel Island are the perfect way to go.

There is now more than one hundred Sanibel Island cottage rentals available, from quaint one-bedroom units to larger, multi-level "home-away-from-homes". It's easy to find comfortable cottage accommodations, many with wonderful ocean views, and some located right on the beach.

Here is a listing of cottages on Sanibel Island that offer everything you need for your perfect island getaway:

Periwinkle Cottages of Sanibel

Periwinkle Cottages of Sanibel have long been considered the number one choice of accommodations for serious birders. The cottages are located by the Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge, a massive natural conservatory that's home to spectacular and exotic birds and wildlife. Nestled within the natural beauty of the exclusive west end of Sanibel Island, Periwinkle Cottages retain Old Florida charm while providing comfortable, modern conveniences. Guests at Periwinkle Cottages enjoy many amenities including free bicycle rentals, a bonus that will come in handy should you choose to explore the gorgeous island. If you prefer to remain beach bound, you'll find pristine private white beaches dotted with seashells, just steps from your nest at Periwinkle Cottages.

Seashore Cottages on Sanibel

For a purely tranquil experience, consider spending time at the Seashore Cottages. Your cottage is surrounded by lush gardens of tropical plants and palms. Created with the enjoyment of adult guests in mind, each cottage is built at ground level for easy, unrestricted access. There are several Seashore Cottages to choose from, each with its own particular charm, and all are beautifully decorated with an island theme and oak antiques. Of course, your Seashore Cottage is also fully appointed with all the modern amenities required by today's busy traveler.

The Palms of Sanibel Cottages

When searching the finest cottages on Sanibel Island, you'll surely encounter the Palms of Sanibel Cottages. These fully furnished cottage rentals are located in the historic east end of the island, right in the heart of Old Sanibel. Completely remodeled and beautifully decorated, the Palms of Sanibel Cottages ceramic tile floors, queen size beds, and cable television, with a modern kitchen and private bath. The setting is tropical and serene, surrounded by hibiscus, coconut palms and bougainvillea bushes. Enjoy a morning stroll along the meandering paths that wind throughout the exquisite gardens. Hop on a complimentary bicycle in the afternoon and ride down to the historic Sanibel Island lighthouse, just a short trip away. Then, in the evening, find a spot on the nearby beach and witness the world-famous Sanibel sunset.

Whether traveling for adventure or relaxation, alone or with your family, cottages on Sanibel Island are a great choice. Affordable, yet with everything you need close at hand, Sanibel cottages allow you to maintain privacy and solitude. Cottages on Sanibel Island are just right when you need to relax, unwind and enjoy everything this fabulous destination has to offer.
